

Tangling
THE Memories
2010

Align

This beach has a history of habits.

*The moon, a constant clock,
has always given rise to tides.*

*Wave by wave
the water wakes and sighs
shortens the sand
lengthens a swim*

*The wind
has always known
how to nudge
and urge
the sand into action,
setting a dune on a blade of grass —
a foothold for more wind*

tangling the memory of a pitch pine's roots

*The lee of this chain
has been under the guidance of the moon, the wind and the sun,*

*sage counsel to this,
our changing beach.*

*These are the habits
that a beach can honor*

*Our habitat of habit is gilded,
glossy and glaring,
we burn like the sun
assert like the wind*

a pushy moon sere and surge

*Our wrack line, seedless
our water, a faucet running a cumbersome coil*

*an indirect route,
a spill*

*Our errands, bulked up
by consumer muscle,
not graceful and direct
on legs like the plover.*

Nothing like the fleeting shadow of wingspan

*Our thirst sharper than salt, separate and splendid
from indoor life*

to pretend proportion and feel small against the sea

*To be small again,
let morning light illuminate you*

wave water cleanse you the breeze power you

*and let your footsteps,
a simple shift*

*from sole to sand,
fall lighter on this earth*

Bring home only what you need Need less

*Align with the sun, the wind
and the moon*

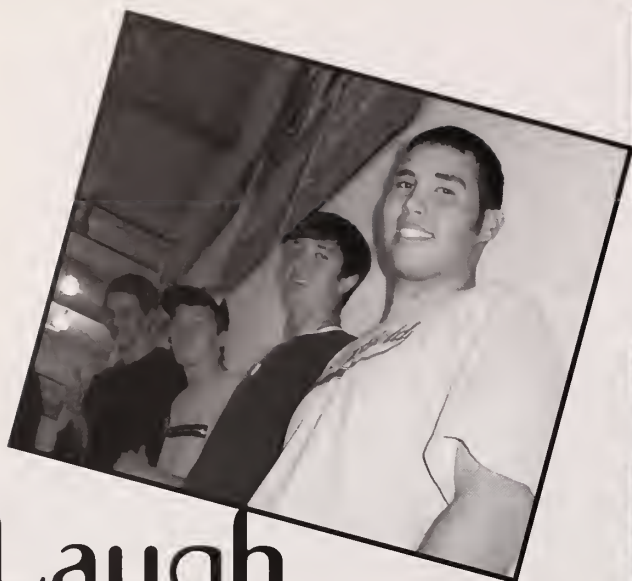

*in their difficult work
to erase our footsteps,
our surfeit.*

*Blend in like the plover
cast a shorter shadow
shift like the dune.*

*Adopt an inconvenience
so that we all may keep the sea*

Academics

The lot of this country
fills every corner of
of the moon. We are same, could be to a

our changing beach.

Principal
Mr. Cahill

Vice Principal
Mr. Dalton

Dear Members of the Class of 2010:

This Yearbook captures the memories of your four years at Ipswich High School. You have been a class marked by many individual successes and will leave an excellent reputation behind as you move on. The four years have gone quickly but they have been filled with rich experiences.

In future years, you can reflect back to the excellence of the music program, drama, art, athletics and many clubs and activities. Model UN, Mock Trial, the trip to China, Best Buddies are but a few of the enriching experiences you have had.

We will miss you and wish you the best. Your footprints will remain as a positive impact on our school and its culture.

Camelot

"Might for right!"

"Yes, Your Majesty. I am Mordred."

"Where are the simple joys of maidenhood?"

"In short, there's simply not, a more congenial spot, for happily-ever-aftering than here in Camelot!"

Lerner and Loewe's Camelot, a production 30 years in the making, was an explosion of knights in armor, fine tapestries, and a true hero, King Arthur. When our dedicated director, Debra Dion Saust, saw it was time to bring this show to life, the cast was thrilled. Castles were built, and costumes were made. King Arthur, Lancelot, Guenevere, and their royal court performed for a full house, putting on one the best shows Ipswich High School has ever seen.

"I passed a square and saw there a sword rising from a stone. That's how I became King."

Tangling in the Tide

We should all feel so lucky to live by the beach. To be able to feel the wind in our hair, the sand between our toes, and the sun beating down on our bodies.

We take the simple things in life for granted sometimes but this is our sanctuary, this is OUR BEACH and the beauty of it is irreplaceable.

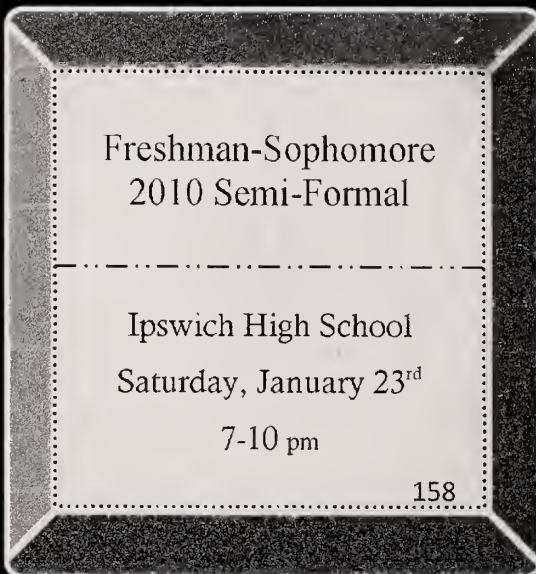

Take a day off to relax and tan in the sun, take a peaceful stroll, refresh your body and mind in the ocean, or have some fun with friends.

Nothing can beat a day at the beach. The memories gathered through the years here, will be loved and remembered forever!

In Loving Memory of Toni Pottack

"Before my job interview, Toni offered to take me on a walk around the school to calm my nerves. She seemed so proud of the work the students had done. I thought that if the receptionist was this happy, working here was the right choice."

Ms. Panciera

"Every morning, she would give the Tiger Tots kids animal crackers. She always had a bright, smiling face for the kids. Sophie always called her 'Noni' because she couldn't say Toni."

Ms. Davis

"Toni and I were in GOYA together. She always tried to be involved in kids lives, in and out of school. She went to the next level and wasn't just a secretary, she was a friend of the community. She was a very strong woman and was always happy."

Jena Woodworth

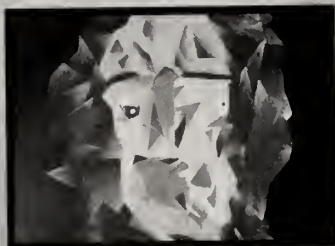

"I was proud of Toni for making the decision and living her last days the way SHE wanted to...on her terms. She was courageous beyond measure."

Jason wasn't like everybody else. He had a big heart and accepted everyone for who they were. Not everyone understood him but there was no doubt he was loved and valued by everyone who had the pleasure of being his friend. We'll never forget all of the hugs and laughs we shared with him."

Evan Petto and Molly Miller

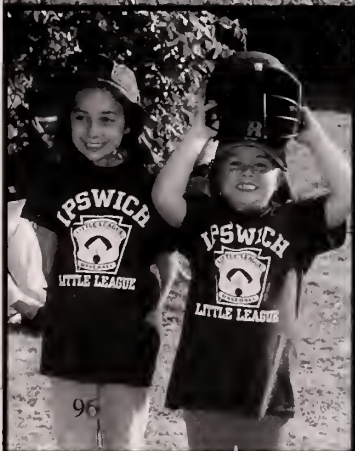

"Jason was the kind of friend people wish they could have. Whenever I or anyone else had trouble, he would do what he could to help and succeed even if it was something he had never done before. He was the guy I would go to in a pinch. His advice had wisdom beyond his years, and his knowledge surprised me. I could talk forever about Jason, my best friend, who lived with a joy it would take most people 3 life spans to attain."

Gus Zagarella

"Jason was a very creative and open-minded individual. With his talent he produced over 60 songs and three albums of music. He encompassed different cultures and had a style all his own. Jason had a very sweet personality and love for everyone."

THEN &

The seniors of 2010 strutted their stuff on the catwalk November 16 as a fundraiser for their class. The fashion show was held at the Ipswich Country Club. Every model got to wear both a casual and formal outfit from stores like French Lessons, Giblee's, TJ Maxx, Pure Bliss and many more fabulous stores that were willing to donate some of their clothes.

PRESIDENT - JACKSON SABBAGH VICE PRESIDENT - LAUREN MAZZOLA
TREASURER - JENA WOODWORTH SECRETARY - MATTHEW BURKE

To the Ipswich High School Class of 2010,

I don't need to tell you that we have made it. We, who have put in four years of worksheets, sideshows, essays, labs, exams, and so much more, have almost completed our high school careers. We have taken the initiative to raise our hands, we have skipped sleep to study for the big test, and a few of us have even read a summer reading book. When we weren't immersing ourselves in academia, we were sweating at practice, laboring at work, crafting in the studio, and dazzling on stage. We, in essence, were full-time students. But we certainly didn't do it alone.

Mr. Cahill, Mr. Dalton, the teachers, the guidance counselors, and the entire faculty were immeasurable influences over our time at Ipswich High School. They have pushed us to push ourselves, they have taught us lessons outside of the textbook, and they have provided an environment in which to grow, stretch, and learn. To these incredible guides, we truly cannot thank you enough. Of course, we came home to families that were the foundations for who we are as students and as people. Our mothers and fathers are homework-helpers, caretakers, college-geniuses, and mentors; they cook for us, listen to us, and love us.

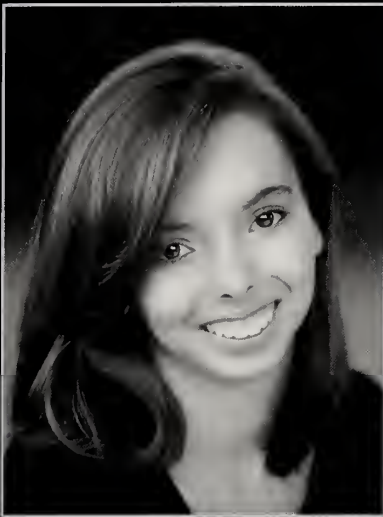

Our most treasured memories of Ipswich High School, and for many, even before freshman year, come from the friends we have made and the bonds we have strengthened. These are the friends that spot us when we run out of cafeteria money, that can recite our every inside joke on a dime, that won't stop chuckling for an hour after we trip up the stairs. We will soon be making many new friends, but the ones we have now will absolutely remain one of the most integral parts of our lives.

We can never forget Ipswich High School. We are walking forward into the next stage of our lives, but in the back of our minds will always be four years of laughs, tears, and everything in between. Class of 2010, congratulations on graduating from Ipswich High School!

With love,
Jackson Sabbagh.
